

I support satellite radio and their efforts to bring the best to its listeners.
It is time to let the public have what they want.